Sensitech Wins Award for Vaccine Cold Chain Management Excellence in Asia Pacific

BEVERLY, Mass. – Nov. 22, 2021 - Sensitech, a global real-time visibility solution provider, today announced it has been recognized by Singapore-based IMAPAC, for outstanding cold chain management solutions as part of the 2021 Asia-Pacific Vaccine Excellence Awards. Sensitech is a part of Carrier Global Corporation (NYSE: CARR), the leading global provider of healthy, safe, sustainable and intelligent building and cold chain solutions.

“With the majority of COVID-19 vaccines being produced in the APAC region, the role of good temperature management practices is imperative to helping eradicate this virus from our global populations,” said JC Marin, Vice President of International Operations, Sensitech. “Being a global business with 30 years of experience allowed us to quickly adapt to changing conditions and meet emerging customer needs, and we are greatly appreciative for the recognition of our team’s efforts.”

The Asia Pacific Vaccine Excellence Awards, organized by IMAPAC, recognize the outstanding achievements of vaccine and supply chain experts and organizations and the latest technologies in Asia.

“Sensitech’s continued growth in the Asia-Pacific region has allowed us to add value by supporting our customers with local, on-the-ground support with reliable and nimble execution,” says Poi Hean Chua, Life Sciences Sales Director for Asia Pacific, Sensitech.

The formal awards ceremony was held in conjunction with the Vaccine World Asia Conference in November 2021. Sensitech's Manager for Global Real-Time Solutions, Stefan Surpitski, presented three life sciences case studies highlighting Sensitech's real-time IoT solutions at the conference.
